Job Description

The Medical Assisting Program: Southeastern Technical Institute's Medical Assisting Program teaches the skills and theory of both the administrative and clinical components of the profession. Graduates are qualified to sit for the Certified Medical Assistant exam sponsored by the American Association of Medical Assistants.

The five-year aggregate exam pass rate is 76.8%. Job placement, employer satisfaction, and graduate satisfaction for the same period is 100%.

The Medical Assisting Program is accredited by the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education as well as the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs.

The Team & Teaching Environment: The Medical Assisting instructor joins a team of dedicated educators who use their teaching, training, and real-world healthcare experience to educate aspiring medical assistants. Teaching methods include classroom, clinical, and laboratory experiences in our well-equipped classrooms, state-of-the-art clinical simulation laboratory, and ambulatory care centers.

The Ideal Candidate: The ideal candidate possesses a Chapter 74 Medical Assisting Teaching License and prior teaching experience.

Candidates who do not possess a Chapter 74 Medical Assisting Teaching license will be considered if they have the education, employment experience, and certifications needed to secure a Chapter 74 license. These include:

- An associate degree or higher with at least 18 credits directly related to medical assisting;
- Four years of full-time employment experience directly related to medical assisting; and
- Possession of a current national certification as a medical assistant or medical assistant/secretary.

Unlicensed candidates must also commit to achieving passing scores on the following exams within the first year of employment:
